10 Intentions for Reading this Book

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has stated, نِيَّةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ عَمَلِهِ ‘The intention of a Muslim is better than his deed.’ (Mu’jam Kabīr, vol. 6, pp. 185, Ḥadīṣ 5942)

Two Madanī pearls

- ❖ Without a good intention, no reward is granted for a righteous deed.
- ❖ The more righteous intentions one makes, the greater reward he will attain.

Intentions

- 1-4. Every time I read this book, I will start by reciting Ḥamd, Ṣalāt, Ta’awwūz and Tasmiyyah (by reading the Arabic lines given at the top of this page you will be acting on all these four intentions).
5. I will read this book from beginning to end for the pleasure of Allah عَزَّوَجَلَّ.
- 6-7. To the best of my ability, I will try to read it whilst in the state of Wuḍū and facing the Qiblah.
8. I will behold the Quranic verses,
9. and the blessed Aḥādīṣ
10. (Whilst reading the book) Whenever I read the name of Allah, I will say عَزَّوَجَلَّ,

Preface

The beautiful character and the elegant conversations of Allah Almighty's pious people, the honourable Auliya رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ that are full of knowledge and wisdom, have the power to attract hearts towards themselves. On the one hand, these sacred personalities rescue people from misguidance and faithlessness through their character and action, show them the righteous path, and make them the embodiment of Sunan; on the other hand, the sweetness and taste of their sayings and discourses find a place in hearts. The pious people of Allah Almighty, the honourable Auliya رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ, keep from useless actions and speeches and keep their tongue moist with the holy Quran, Hadith, Zikr, and Durood. Their conversations are extracts of the holy Quran, Hadith, and the teachings of religious elders رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ. This is why their speech is effective and intellectual that profoundly impacts hearts. It is the special mercy of Allah Almighty on these pious people that by virtue of their company, one attains lofty ranks and gets engaged in preparing for the hereafter, having been inspired by their speech. Through the precious sayings and discourses of religious elders رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ, the ways and manners of leading a life are learnt, the passion for good deeds increases, and hatred for sins develops.

By the grace of Allah, Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ, the founder of Dawat-e-Islami, Allama Maulana Muhammad Ilyas Attar Qadiri Razawi Ziai دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ is also counted among those pious people of Allah Almighty. I assume that Allah Almighty has blessed him with the rank of Wilayah. The religious revolution that has occurred all over the world by virtue of his call towards righteousness is no secret from anyone who has a sound intellect. Having listened to his Sunnah-inspired speeches, thousands of youths left the mire of sins and started treading a path of Sunnah. His writings (i.e. books and booklets) transformed the lives of millions of Islamic brothers and Islamic sisters. Achieving this degree of success within around 42 years is no less than a huge bounty. By the grace of Allah, many non-Muslims turned Muslims and many alcoholics, gamblers, thieves, robbers, dancers, comedians, hooligans, Haram-earners, and women who did not take veil left the valley of sins and adopted the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. Moreover, they became the advocates of Dawat-e-Islami's Madani aim, 'I must strive to reform myself and the people of the entire world,' and started spreading the call towards righteousness.

With the beautiful objective of trying to collect in one place the precious pearls of the conversation of Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat infused with knowledge and wisdom from his Madani Muzakarahs, speeches, and other sessions, a few years ago, a series containing Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat's sayings was started in 'Weekly booklet study', a department of Al-Madina-tul-Ilmiyyah (Islamic Research Centre). The desire was that just like the golden words of other religious elders رَحْمَةُ اللهِ، the sayings of the perfect Wali, Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ، full of knowledge and wisdom, should also be made available to the masses. Hence, six consecutive booklets were published one after another on different occasions. Now, this wish is about to be fulfilled.

Having added some more sayings of Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat to those six booklets, the collection titled '786 pieces of advice by Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat' is being published on the delightful occasion of Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat's 74th birthday, 26th Ramadan al-Mubarak, 1445 Hijri. These words of wisdom for leading an Islamic life are categorised under Islamic, reformative, social, medical, ethical, and societal topics and presented in 102 pages in association with the numerical value of 'Ilyas', i.e. 102 in the science of Abjad.

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ several Islamic brothers from Weekly booklet study department, Syed Karimuddin Qadiri Madani, Imran Ahmad Madani, Bilal Saeed Madani, Mahmood Ali Madani, and graphics designer Arsalan Ajmeri Attari helped me with the preparation of this book. Whatever good things this book contains are the mercy of Allah Almighty, the benevolence of His beloved and final prophet Sayyiduna Muhammad صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ، favours of honourable Auliya رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِمُ، and the blessings of my spiritual guide Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ، and the flaws committed by mistake are our fault. May Allah Almighty make this book a source of constant Sadqa and forgiveness without accountability for all of us, grant the devotees of the prophet the privilege to reap its blessings, and enable them to follow these golden principles and lead their lives in good deeds! May Allah Almighty grant progress in leaps and bounds to all the departments of Dawat-e-Islami, including Al-Madina-tul-Ilmiyyah and the Weekly booklet study department, and grant us the honour to serve the religion in abundance with sincerity and steadfastness under the shade of His mercy!

VIEWS OF MUFTI-E-AHL-E-SUNNAT MUFTI MUHAMMAD QASIM

ATTARI QADIRI مُدَّةَ ظِلِّهِ الْعَالِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

The typical meaning of advice is to wish well, be it in the form of words or action. Sermon is a form of the same verbal advice which refers to anything that calls a person towards a favourite thing and saves him from danger, develops softness in the heart, makes him gravitate towards good deeds, and warns him of the consequence of evil actions.

As medicine is needed when physical health deteriorates, advice is needed to get rid of or prevent corruption in religious, ethical, spiritual, and social life. Pieces of advice, i.e. points containing the spirit of well-wishing prove immensely beneficial in bringing improvement to life. In order for advice to make an impact, it is necessary that the advisor's heart has the passion for compassion and sympathy. Then, the impact of advice depends upon its nature and its words and manner. Everyone is in need of advice, and that person is fortunate who has someone to advise them.

Giving advice is such a magnificent action that the Wise and All-aware Almighty has advised the people in various ways at numerous places in the holy Quran. The holy Quran is the Word of the Lord. It is the book of guidance, the scripture of wisdom, and the collection of advice. Every single word of the holy Quran is full of light, but the sacred words containing important pieces of advice are so beautiful that the human intellect gets astonished by the manner in which these pieces of advice are stated. Have a look at a few samples of the Quranic pieces of advice. This is not an exact translation but the meaning.

- Every soul is to taste death.
- Whomsoever was saved from the fire and admitted to Paradise, indeed, succeeded.
- The life of this world is nothing but a provision of deception.
- A human gets only what they strive for.
- Speaking softly and forgiving are better than the charity that leads to heartbreak.
- The reward of virtue is nothing but virtue.
- A human has (everything) what they desire.
- The provisions of this world are ordinary, while the hereafter is better for who turns righteous.
- Undoubtedly, there is ease with hardship. Surely, there is ease after hardship.

Giving advice is also the Sunnah of prophets. Hence, it becomes clear from the verses of the Holy Quran that the prophets عَلَيْهِمُ الصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ kept advising their nations verbally and practically and wishing well for them. Despite the foolish reactions of their nations, they kept saying to them with extreme politeness that we are only your well-wishers.

Hence, Nuh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ said to his nation:

أَبْلِغُكُمْ رَسُولِ رَبِّي وَأَنْصَحُ نَكْمَ

I convey to you the messages of my Lord and I seek goodness for you.¹

Sayyiduna Hud عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ said to the nation:

أَبْلِغُكُمْ رَسُولِ رَبِّي وَأَنَا كُمْ نَاصِحٌ أَمِينٌ

I convey to you the messages of my Lord, and I am a trustworthy adviser to you.²

² Al-Quran, part 8, Al-A'raf, verse 68, translation from Kanz al-'Irfān

Sayyiduna Salih عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said to the nation:

لَقَدْ أَبْلَغْتُكُمْ رَسُولَ رَبِّي وَنَصَحْتُكُمْ وَلَكِنْ لَا تُحِبُّونَ التَّصْحِيحِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾

Indeed I conveyed the message of my Lord to you and I advised you, but you do not like sincere advisers.¹

Sayyiduna Shoaib عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام made the same remarks to his nation: (Part 8, Surah al-A'raaf, verse 62)

The same manner of advice and admonition is the Sunnah of the final prophet of Allah, Sayyiduna Muhammad Mustafa صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

Allah Almighty commanded him صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ:

فَاعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَعِظْهُمْ وَقُلْ لَهُمْ فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ قَوْلًا بَلِيغًا

So, overlook them and advise them and speak to them about their souls with words of efficacy.²

Have a look at some precious samples of the pieces of advice from the holy prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

He said:

- Fear Allah wherever you are. Perform a good deed after committing an offence, for it erases the evil, and treat people with kindness.
- It is the beauty of the Islam of a person to quit whatever is useless.
- Religion is the name of well-wishing.
- The one whose advice is sought is a trustee.
- The best of all actions is what is beneficial.
- The worst blindness is the blindness of the heart.

² Al-Quran, part 5, Al-Nisa', verse 63, translation from Kanz al-'Irfan

- The upper (i.e. the giving) hand is better than the lower hand.
- The wealth that is little but fulfils the need is better than that abundant wealth that makes one negligent.
- The best affluence is the affluence of the heart.
- The best provision for the journey of the hereafter is piety.
- Fortunate is the one who seeks advice from others.
- The one who forgives is also granted forgiveness.
- There is no benefit in the company of a person who you wish well but he thinks about causing you harm.
- The one who recognises his value and status is not ruined.

Apart from the prophets عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, the pieces of advice from the pious people are also mentioned in the holy Quran, Hadith, and the books of biography. In this regard, the most renowned name is of Sayyiduna Luqman رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ. He was a pious person of Allah Almighty. The holy Quran has stated the pieces of advice from Sayyiduna Luqman رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ that he gave while counselling his son. The summary of those pieces of advice is as follows:

O my son! Do not consider any object or person as a partner to Allah. Indeed, polytheism is a grave transgression. Avoid even the most minute evil because even if evil is as small as a mustard seed and it is present in a rock, in the heavens, in the earth, in a cave, or wherever, Allah Almighty will bring it before the person on the Day of Judgement. Establish the prayer, command the good and condemn evil, and be patient upon hardships — indeed, this is among the deeds of great courage. Similarly, do not adopt an arrogant and haughty attitude, e.g. do not talk to people with a crooked mouth. Instead of shouting and yelling, speak in an appropriate volume, because the sound of yelling is bad and the worst voice is of the donkey that brays loudly. Moreover, walk at a normal pace in your gait. Do not walk with vanity because Allah Almighty does not like any vain and arrogant individual.

(Summarised from Surah Luqman)

In the nation of Sayyiduna Muhammad صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, many faith-nourishing and exhilarating pieces of advice are found, given by the blessed companions رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ and especially Maula Ali, the Lion of the Lord رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ. Among the reforming Imams, a collection of the pieces of advice from the great Imam Sayyiduna Imam Abu Hanifah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ is also available. Likewise, in a compiled form, Risalah al-Mustarshidin by Imam Haris Ibn Asad Muhasibi رَحِمَهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ, Al-Hikam al-Ataiyyah by Ibn Ataullah al-Iskandari رَحِمَهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ, and Manazil al-Saireen etc. by Imam Abdullah Ansari Harawi are the forms of books that contain pieces of advice. Similarly, Ayyuhal Walad by Imam Ghazali رَحِمَهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ containing pieces of advice is also quite popular. The state of the efficacy of Al-Fath al-Rabbani and Futuh al-Ghayb, magnificent collections of advice by Sayyiduna Shaikh Abdul Qadir Jilani رَحِمَهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ that cause a revolution in the heart and the soul, is that it would soften even the extremely hardened hearts.

Writing the books containing words of advice or compiling the pieces of advice of religious nobles has been in practice since the time of pious elders. The pious scholars of every era wrote on this, penned down words of advice, and presented them to the masses so that having read them, their hearts gravitate towards good deeds and virtues.

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ, this book 786 pieces of advice by Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat is a link of the same thread. It contains the pieces of advice by my master and spiritual guide Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat Muhammad Ilyas Attar Qadiri Razawi Ziai دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةَ that he delivered in different gatherings. The being of my benevolent spiritual guide is an embodiment of knowledge and practice and a figure of sincerity and kind manners. It possesses the passion for worship, is a specimen of virtuous actions and an image of following the Sunnah, and is brimming with the spirit to reform the nation. His heart is filled with affection, love, and the spirit of well-wishing. The excellent and efficacious words that come out of his immaculate heart and are uttered by his eloquent tongue have, without exaggeration, brought a revolution in the hearts of millions of people. The collection of the pieces of advice containing these beautiful words is in your hands. Go through it, reap its blessings, give it a place in your heart, and become a means of constant Sadqah by sharing it with others. May Allah Almighty grant Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةَ a long life with health and wellness and spread his blessings throughout the world!

Humble remarks

Views of Allamah Maulana Mufti Fuzail Raza Qadiri Attari مَدَّ ظِلُّهُ الْعَالِي

I went through some parts of this booklet. It is a bouquet of the words of wisdom and advice. For the wise, a mere hint is sufficient whereas several warnings are required for the negligent. In this booklet, Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَة has given such excellent pieces of advice in short words that are hints for the wise as well as entire provision of warning for the negligent ones like me. I must say these are not just words that could be read and forgotten. One's entire life can improve. Salvation can be attained in the hereafter. One who appreciates them, truly intends to act upon them, understands them, and practically tries to follow them, only a few of these points are sufficient for their reformation.

Elders say: Previously, people used to attain beneficial knowledge equal to salt in flour, i.e. very little, and perform good deeds equal to the flour, i.e. very much. Now, even those are not found who perform good deeds equal to salt in flour. So, this is an asset, a treasure, and an extract of experiences. It contains beautiful points of beneficial knowledge and suggestions. Now, the need is to act upon them and seek ability from Allah Almighty. He alone is the actual Owner and the true Helper. By virtue of the holy prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, his sacred descendants, and the blessed companions, may Allah Almighty shower His grace and mercy, grant us the ability, and give us a respectable life and an honourable death! He is Pure; He accepts pure things. May He grant us a clean and pure life! May He bestow upon us a good end with faith and wellness!

1. Shariah will not follow you. You should follow Shariah.
2. Eid Mubarak! is a supplication. It means, may the Eid be blessed for you!
3. The harder the test, the more prestigious the certificate.

There are similar kinds of 786 pieces of advice that can be immensely beneficial in the world and the hereafter. These pieces of advice stated by Shaikh-e-Tariqat Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَّةُ are before you. The pieces of advice by Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَّةُ are so impactful that we observe millions of the devotees of the prophet have succeeded in bringing an excellent change to their lives after listening to his words of wisdom full of advice. Be it an elderly or a youth, a child or an adult, a man or a woman, a professional or a non-professional, an employee or an employer, اَلْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ, you will find excellent pieces of advice for everyone in this book. I request everyone to read it, even distribute it and encourage everyone in your house to read it. Present it as a gift in your office. Place it on your table in the office. Put it at a place that is frequented by people, such as waiting rooms, etc. These are the sayings of a pious person, a perfect friend of Allah Almighty. اِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ, these pieces of advice will profoundly impact the heart, and the realm of the heart will be completely transformed.

Views of Nigran-e-Pakistan Abu Rajab Haji Shahid Attari مَدَّ ظِلُّهُ الْعَالِي

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ, I have skimmed through this booklet. اِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ, I will read it in its entirety. Whoever reads it will get the lesson of love for Allah Almighty and prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, the passion for following Islam and Shariah, and if Allah Almighty wills, the honour to act upon the Sunnah and the advice of the blessed companions رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ and the elders of the religion رَحِمَهُمُ اللَّهُ.

ما شاء الله! The sayings of Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَّةُ are rich with the mention of Makkah and Madinah. If Allah Almighty wills, one will be trained in the inner and outer selves, Shariah and Tariqat, devotion for Ghaus Pak and Raza, celebrating Milad, etiquette of the mosque, the importance of Imam and Muazzin, the significance of Salah, fear of the Lord, sincerity, patience, gratitude, calling towards righteousness, the ill consequences of sins, precautions of speaking, the religion and the world, seeing, hearing, and speaking. إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ May Allah Almighty enable us to read this booklet attentively with sincerity and good intentions, act upon it, and share it with others! May Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat's دَامَتْ بَرَكَاتُهُمُ الْعَالِيَةِ prestige is enhanced! May Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat's knowledge and action, health, life, and honour gain more and more blessings! And may Allah Almighty prolong his shadow over our heads with wellness and keep us obedient and subservient to him!

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ وَالصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى خَاتَمِ النَّبِيِّينَ
أَمَّا بَعْدُ فَأَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

786 pieces of advice by Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat

Supplication of the caliph of Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat: O Allah Almighty, whoever reads or listens to the 102-page book, '786 pieces of advice by Ameer-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat', enrich them with the blessings of the world and the hereafter, forgive them and their family without accountability, and grant them the neighbourhood of Your beloved and final prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ in the Paradise of Firdaus.

أَمِينُ بِجَاهِ خَاتَمِ النَّبِيِّينَ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ

Excellence of reciting Salat

The final prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: Indeed, Allah Almighty has appointed an angel at my grave and given him the power to hear the voices of the entire creation. Thus, until the Day of Judgement, whoever recites Salat upon me, he presents his name and his father's name to me and says: *So-and-so son of so-and-so has recited Salat upon you right now.*¹

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ! How fortunate is the one who recites Salat that his name along with his father's name is presented in the court of the holy prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. Here, this point is also quite faith-refreshing that the angel present at the luminous tomb has been given such a great hearing power that he hears even the lowest voices of millions of Muslims reciting Salat simultaneously in every corner of the world. When this is the level of the hearing power of the servant of his court, what will the glory of the beloved prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ of Allah Almighty be! Why would he not recognise his slaves and why would he not hear their pleas and help them with the permission of Allah Almighty?

صَلُّوا عَلَيَّ الْحَبِيبِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيَّ مُحَمَّدٍ

Importance of the sayings of religious elders رَحْمَةُ اللهِ

Sayyiduna Shaikh Abdul Aziz Dabbagh رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ has said: In front of the spiritual guide (instead of flaunting their knowledge) the disciple should imagine that they are sitting at seashore, waiting for their share of sustenance. Therefore, they should listen to the conversation of the spiritual guide with undivided attention; certainly, they will reap the blessing.¹

Sayyiduna Imam Abdul Wahhab Sha'rani رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ has said: O son, save every point that you hear from your spiritual guide, even if, at the time of hearing that point, you do not understand its benefit.²

Sayyiduna Muhyuddin Ibn Arabi رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ has stated the attribute of those who love their spiritual guide that the disciple attains comfort from the conversation and the sacred name of the beloved.³

The honourable father of Sayyiduna Baba Bullhay Shah رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ has said: Son, we should visit the courts of religious elders with extreme respect, reverence, and devotion. We should cleanse our heart of the filth of arrogance and pride. Whatever the spiritual guide says, listen to it attentively, give it a place in your heart, and start acting upon it while considering it the capital of your life.⁴

4 pieces of advice regarding good intentions

1. Giving a good suggestion to Muslims or making a fair recommendation for them is also counted as fulfilling the need of a Muslim. If there is a good intention behind it, it will also be a reward-earning act.⁵
2. With a good intention, being distressed by someone's religious loss is a reward-earning act.⁶

2. Safeguard the Miswak from disrespect and honour it, as it is a tool to act upon Sunnah.¹
3. In my boyhood, I used Miswak and made efforts to acquire it. Even before the inception of Dawat-e-Islami, I used to make a pocket in my shirt for Miswak.²
4. Just like Tehband or pyjamas, Jubbah should also remain above the ankles.³
5. The Sunnah of wearing a beard saves from many evils like rude behaviour and swearing etc.⁴
6. The beard and turban are such bounties that remove the evils from a person.⁵
7. The one who wears a turban keeps from sins by virtue of it and his character also gets refined.⁶
8. If all the associates of Dawat-e-Islami start wearing a turban, a Madani revolution will occur. Those who do not wear a turban despite being associated with Dawat-e-Islami cause a loss in the benefit of Dawat-e-Islami.⁷
9. Putting oil on eyebrows is a Sunnah and also relieves headache.⁸
10. The one who attains the passion (for good deeds) does not leave Sunnah, no matter what corner of the world he goes to.⁹
11. Do visit the sick, as it is a Sunnah, but do not stay there for so long that the patient gets uncomfortable.¹⁰

7. For me, the best day is the one when no sin is committed.¹
8. In order to avoid a sin, the causes of the sin will have to be eliminated.²
9. If one is aware of the punishments of sins, they will develop the mindset to avoid them.³
10. Staring at someone without Shar'i permission in a manner that hurts their feelings is also a sin.⁴
11. No sin brings comfort.⁵
12. A sin may endanger the faith and the risk of losing the faith increases (because of it).⁶
13. The diseases of sins are more dangerous than physical diseases.⁷
14. Even one minor sin can be a cause of entering Hell.⁸
15. Along with apparent sins, it is also necessary to gain information about hidden sins.⁹
16. Always keep in view that there should never be a decrease in the balance of good deeds and there should never be an increase in the balance of sins.¹⁰
17. Love for adulation, i.e. the passion for desiring praise for oneself is not good. It is a hidden disease and because of it, a person may suffer from many sins.¹¹

4 pieces of advice regarding safeguarding the eyes

1. On the Day of Judgement, a person will be held accountable for seeing even those visuals that were neither reward-giving nor sinful.⁵
2. In the current era, observing Qufi-e-Madinah of eyes (i.e. protecting them from seeing sinful and useless things) is difficult but not impossible. One should not leave the house unnecessarily. If one has to go out, he should keep his gaze lowered. If the gaze involuntarily falls upon some non-Mahram woman, he should avert it instantly. He should visit such places as rarely as possible where women are unveiled, for example, markets etc.⁶
3. I like the Islamic brothers who speak less, keep their gaze lowered, and are the embodiment of Sunan.⁷
4. Looking here and there unnecessarily is not a good habit. In fact, avoiding it with good intentions is a reward-earning act.⁸

18 pieces of advice regarding Islamic scholars

1. The most honourable and intellectual class of the society is of Islamic scholars. Do not criticise Islamic scholars, rather respect and honour them.¹
2. We have to carry out the religious work while remaining connected with the scholars of Ahl-e-Sunnat. They are the crowns of our heads.²
3. Although an Islamic scholar looks simple, they are distinguished from the ordinary people because of knowledge and carry the best personality.³
4. The person who remains in the company of a practising Sunni Islamic scholar having correct beliefs attains both knowledge and spirituality.⁴
5. Be humble instead of calling yourself 'Allamah' or 'Aalim' with your own mouth.⁵
6. Even an Islamic scholar and Mufti should have the contents of Ihya al-Uloom ingrained in them. إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ, their Fatawa will see improvement.⁶
7. A knowledgeable person should ponder whether an uneducated person seems inferior to them or not. And they should fear Allah Almighty thinking that the other person might be approved in the court of Allah Almighty.⁷
8. The knowledgeable ones and those who have truly remained in their company (their followers) do not commit suicide.⁸
9. Speaking ill of the Islamic scholars who are devotees of the prophet (insulting Islamic scholars) may endanger faith.⁹

10. By mistake, if an Islamic scholar states the wrong ruling, they should not feel ashamed to rectify it (i.e. admit their mistake and state the correct ruling). (This is what the Lord-fearing Islamic scholars do.)¹
11. Those who desire to serve me financially should instead serve their local Sunni Islamic scholar having correct beliefs.²
12. Solemnity is the adornment of an Islamic scholar.³
13. Religious people should remain more cautious, as a stain on white clothes is visible even from the distance.⁴
14. Everyone should try to become an Islamic scholar. Being an Islamic scholar is an extremely great honour.⁵
15. Buy at least one Arabic book from Maktaba-tul-Madinah (Arabic Books Department). If you do not have the ability to read it, present it to some Sunni scholar as a gift.⁶
16. Islamic scholars and spiritual guides who inquire after people's well-being by visiting their houses, share their grief and sorrow, and treat them with kindness and gentleness find a place in people's hearts.⁷
17. Ask a ruling from any Islamic scholar after assessing the situation and seeking their permission. If the honourable Islamic scholar refuses, do not be upset.⁸
18. A Mufti is extremely intelligent.⁹

11 pieces of advice for students and teachers

1. Religious students and those who read Islamic books should buy religious books out of pocket, if possible. إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ, the blessings will increase.¹
2. Students are an important capital of the country and can transform the fate of the country.²
3. If the manners of the students are corrected and they truly develop seriousness in themselves, they can serve the religion immensely.³
4. A teacher should be able to assess the psyche of their students.⁴
5. The aptitude of a teacher lies in the fact that they teach a dull student and make them pass the examination.⁵
6. Along with having the desire to attain religious knowledge, I would like to see the students being desirous of Madani activities.⁶⁻⁷
7. Respect the teacher and books as much as possible. إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ, the essence of knowledge will be attained.⁸
8. The pen is an instrument of learning knowledge. It should be honoured.⁹
9. One should not reveal himself being a Nigran, teacher, or Islamic scholar without need.¹⁰
10. It is difficult to become an Islamic scholar merely through the curriculum of Dars-e-Nizami. For that, it is necessary to read more Islamic books.¹¹

42 pieces of advice for parents

1. Parents should provide their children with the necessary education of the religion first.¹
2. The blessed companions رضي الله عنهم used to train their children in bravery. Our children should be as brave as a lion.²
3. Make your children lions. Get them to read Dawat-e-Islami's booklets. Keep them from the stories of ghosts and fairies.³
4. Scaring children with remarks such as, 'The monster is here; the ghost will eat you; the beggar will take you away; the garbage man will grab you,' will make them cowards. We must make our children brave, not coward.⁴
5. Children naturally have this inclination that they imitate the elders. If there is an environment of offering prayers at home, then the children will also imitate offering prayers, and if (Allah forbid) there is an environment of songs and music or dancing, then the children will also dance.⁵
6. It is best to keep children away from the mobile phone.⁶
7. Teach modesty to your daughter since childhood. A mother should not dress her (little) daughter in tight pyjamas.⁷
8. The devotees of the prophet should dress their daughters in long-sleeves and feminine clothes.⁸

10. Parents should advise their children with love, affection, and wise strategy. Scolding and hitting over trivial matters and advising them by yelling may make the children rebellious.¹
11. Parents should make sure to seek the consent of their children before arranging their marriage; otherwise, there are chances of home damages after the marriage.²
12. Children should not be told a few things like the sin of a minor is not recorded, etc. as it makes the children audacious (fearless) and Satan makes them his toys. If there is the fear of the Lord in the children's hearts, they will perform worship.³
13. Parents should not reveal to their children that they love their so-and-so son or daughter more, otherwise, the others will suffer from an inferiority complex, and it will be a cause of ruin (cause of loss) for them.⁴
14. Parents should keep motivating their children who have memorised the Quran to recite the holy Quran every day so that the Quran remains intact in their memory.⁵
15. Every Muslim should make at least one of his sons and daughters an Islamic scholar.⁶
16. When a son is born, make the intention that you will make your child memorise the Quran and make him an Islamic scholar by enrolling him in Jamia-tul-Madinah, إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ.⁷

3. Make up your mind that I will not leave the religious environment of Dawat-e-Islami even if anyone beats or shoves me. In fact, cling to Dawat-e-Islami in such a way that no one can separate you even in pieces.¹
4. The 12 Religious Activities Course must be done by everyone from the Head of Zeli Mushawarat to Shura members.²
5. If Islamic sisters are not allowed by their family to carry out the religious activities, then they should carry out other religious activities that may be done while staying at home.³
6. My heart feels delighted when I come to know that someone carries out the religious activities of Dawat-e-Islami.⁴
7. The blessed companions رضي الله عنهم undertook journeys to spread the religion of Islam. The religious work of Dawat-e-Islami is not done by summoning others but by visiting them. If you want 11 people, then call them, and if you want at least 111, then visit them. (It means, if you hold a meeting by calling others to you, then a small number will come and if you visit them, then more will gather.)⁵
8. The one whose heart feels agitated in the religious environment, their example is like that of a patient who does not like medicine.⁶
9. The work will not get done without sacrificing your existence, for the seed has to bite the dust to turn into a blossoming flower.⁷

3. When you have someone make the intention of a Madani Qafilah or any course, make sure you book a date with him. This also ensures steadfastness.²
4. The one who travels for 12 months, its effects should also appear in his personality, for example, he becomes a follower of Sunan, his Salah gets corrected, and he learns to recite the holy Quran correctly.³

8 pieces of advice regarding the weekly gathering

1. After the weekly gathering, sleep as soon as possible after attending Madani Halqas and having the meal etc. so that you easily wake up for Tahajjud Salah.⁴
2. (The first part of) The weekly gathering should end within two hours after the sunset so that the Islamic brothers sleep quickly after getting done with the sessions and the meal and wake up for Tahajjud. Then, they attend Munajat, Ishraq, and Chasht up to Salat-o-Salam.⁵
3. In the weekly gathering, everyone from the Zeli Mushawarat to Shura members should try to offer Ishraq and Chasht in the first row, and instead of sleeping in any office of Faizan-e-Madinah, they should sleep in the mosque or Fina-e-Masjid.⁶
4. If the participants of the weekly gathering are few, the speech should not be delivered on the microphone.⁷
5. The weekly gathering is the first religious activity of Dawat-e-Islami.⁸

7. After the weekly Sunnah-inspiring gathering, meet with the Islamic brothers. Do not just leave without meeting them. When you meet them warmly, they will join the religious environment.²
8. Attend the weekly gathering regularly. إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ you will also become a punctual performer of congregational Salah.³

3 pieces of advice regarding performance

1. It should not be said among each other: 'Out of the performance of two Islamic brothers, the performance of so-and-so is good.' However, you may say by mentioning a single person that the performance of so-and-so is good.⁴
2. The intellect also demands that the performance be measured. The task regarding which there is no accountability first weakens and then gradually stops.⁵
3. When no accountability is done for a task, it first slows down and then stops altogether. Where the system of accountability is strong, the religious work is also strong there.⁶
